

STINSON BEACH HISTORICAL SOCIETY

BOARD MEETING Feb.3, 2015

PRESENT: Mark White, Tamae Agnoli, Jane Slack, Celeste Washington, Barrie Stebbings, Susan Banta and Phil Banta.

COMMUNITY CENTER ANNUAL MEETING

Prior to tonight's SBCC Annual Meeting Marcus called a meeting in order to clarify our activities and fundraising events over the past year that he will summarize at the Annual Meeting. It will include our film night showing of Rebels With A Cause in conjunction with the Library Improvement Society, our Garden Tour at Marty Cline's, our Holiday Luncheon, and directions to our website.

CUISINE ON THE GREEN

- Will be held on Saturday, May 9. Katie, who suggested an SBHS display at her food booth, may or may not be available that weekend. As it stands now we will keep our table at the entrance to the Village Green and sell cookies, brownies and memorabilia.

SPRING/FALL EVENT

- After discussing the possibility of another walking tour or presentation by David Conrad, the idea of a brief musical history (1960's-present) of Stinson Beach, in the form of musicians who have lived/are living in our village, won the most votes. The format has yet to be decided but Marcus and Susan Banta agreed to talk to their musician friends to gauge interest and availability. Marcus will also confer with Toby Bisson, who originally suggested the idea, for his ideas. We are considering a September date.
- Another idea for future consideration floated by Sue Banta was a history of Stinson Beach modeled on what Elaine Doss, President of the Nicasio Historical Society, put together, which incorporated the culture of the Miwok Indians.
